"A powerful and inspiring story of how one man's journey of forgiveness and reconciliation can change the world."

In the aftermath of the Rwandan genocide, a young man named Jean-Marie Vianney Rurangwa lost everything. His family, his friends, his home - all were gone. In the midst of this unimaginable loss, Jean-Marie made a choice that would change the course of his life forever: he chose to forgive.

Jean-Marie's journey of forgiveness is not a simple or easy one. It is a journey that takes him through the depths of despair and hatred, but it is also a journey that ultimately leads him to hope and reconciliation.

In Building Bridges, Jean-Marie shares his story with the world. He tells of the horrors he witnessed during the genocide, and of the struggles he faced in the years that followed. He also tells of the power of forgiveness, and of how it can heal even the deepest wounds.

Building Bridges is a powerful and inspiring story that will stay with you long after you finish reading it. It is a story of hope, reconciliation, and the power of the human spirit.

"Jean-Marie's story is a powerful reminder of the importance of forgiveness and reconciliation. It is a story that will inspire you to make a difference in the world."

- Desmond Tutu, Archbishop Emeritus of Cape Town

"Building Bridges is a must-read for anyone who wants to understand the power of forgiveness and reconciliation. It is a story that will change your life."

- Elie Wiesel, Nobel Peace Prize Laureate
