A Rabbit's Request

One fateful day, as Heung Bu wandered through the forest, he encountered a rabbit desperately pleading for his help. The rabbit, caught in a trap, begged Heung Bu to free it. With unwavering compassion, Heung Bu unhesitatingly released the creature.

A Celestial Reward

To Heung Bu's astonishment, the rabbit was no ordinary animal but a celestial being in disguise. Moved by Heung Bu's kindness, the rabbit granted him a special ability: the power to heal the sick and perform miracles.

The Wages of Greed

Meanwhile, Nol Bu, driven by a relentless pursuit of wealth, had become a ruthless moneylender. His insatiable greed extended even to his own parents, whom he mercilessly exploited. One day, as Nol Bu cruelly refused to lend money to a starving neighbor, he encountered the transformed rabbit.

A Cruel Punishment

When Nol Bu stubbornly refused to show compassion, the rabbit revealed its true identity and cursed him. Nol Bu's body became covered in painful boils, a physical manifestation of his inner corruption. In desperation, Nol Bu sought help from his brother, knowing that only Heung Bu's healing powers could alleviate his suffering.
