Middle school is tough. Just ask Rafe Khatchadorian. He's survived his first year, but now he's facing the dreaded seventh grade. And it's not going to be easy.

Rafe is determined to make the best of it, but his plans are quickly derailed by a series of unfortunate events. He's framed for cheating on a test, his crush starts dating his best friend, and his gym teacher is out to get him. But Rafe is not one to give up. He's got a plan to get back at his tormentors and make this year his best year yet.

With his signature wit and charm, Rafe takes readers on an unforgettable journey through the ups and downs of middle school life. He's a relatable and lovable character that everyone can root for. And his hilarious misadventures will keep you laughing all the way through.

Middle School: Just My Rotten Luck is a laugh-out-loud funny and heartwarming adventure that will resonate with anyone who has ever survived middle school. It's the perfect book for fans of Diary of a Wimpy Kid, Big Nate, and Dork Diaries.
