After graduating from high school, Norbert joined the United States Army. He served in the Korean War, and he was awarded the Purple Heart. After his military service, Norbert returned to Kansas and worked as a farmer. He later moved to California, where he worked as a truck driver.

In 1965, Norbert met the love of his life, Mary. They were married a year later, and they had three children. Norbert was a devoted husband and father, and he loved spending time with his family.

Norbert was also a kind and compassionate man. He was always willing to help others, even when it meant putting himself at risk. In 1978, Norbert was driving home from work when he saw a car accident. He stopped to help, and he pulled the driver out of the burning car. Norbert was injured in the accident, but he was grateful that he was able to save the driver's life.

Norbert's story is a reminder that we all have the potential to make a difference in the world. He was an ordinary man who lived an extraordinary life. He was a kind and compassionate soul who always saw the best in people. He was always willing to help others, even when it meant putting himself at risk. Norbert's story is an inspiration to us all.
