A Tapestry of Natural Wonders

- Crystal-Clear Springs: Immerse yourself in the pristine waters of numerous natural springs that bubble up from deep within the Ozark aquifer. These crystal-clear springs create idyllic swimming holes, perfect for cooling off on a hot summer day.

- Majestic Bluffs: Gaze in awe at towering limestone bluffs that line the riverbanks. These majestic formations rise hundreds of feet above the water, offering breathtaking views that will leave you speechless.
- Serene Rivers: Paddle along the tranquil Current and Jacks Fork rivers, meandering through a pristine wilderness. Float past sheer rock faces, lush forests, and hidden waterfalls, creating memories that will last a lifetime.

A Haven for Adventure and Recreation

- Camping: Pitch your tent amidst the towering trees and babbling brooks at one of the many primitive or developed campgrounds scattered throughout the riverways. Enjoy the tranquility of nature and wake up to the symphony of bird songs.
- Hiking: Explore an extensive network of hiking trails that wind through the diverse landscapes of the riverways. Trek through hardwood forests, navigate rugged bluffs, and discover hidden waterfalls and panoramic vistas.
- Fishing: Cast your line into the pristine rivers and try your luck at catching rainbow trout, smallmouth bass, and other native fish species. The riverways offer exceptional fishing opportunities for anglers of all skill levels.
- Kayaking: Embark on a kayaking adventure and paddle along the scenic Current and Jacks Fork rivers. Navigate through crystal-clear waters, maneuver around towering bluffs, and experience the thrill of floating through the heart of the Ozarks.

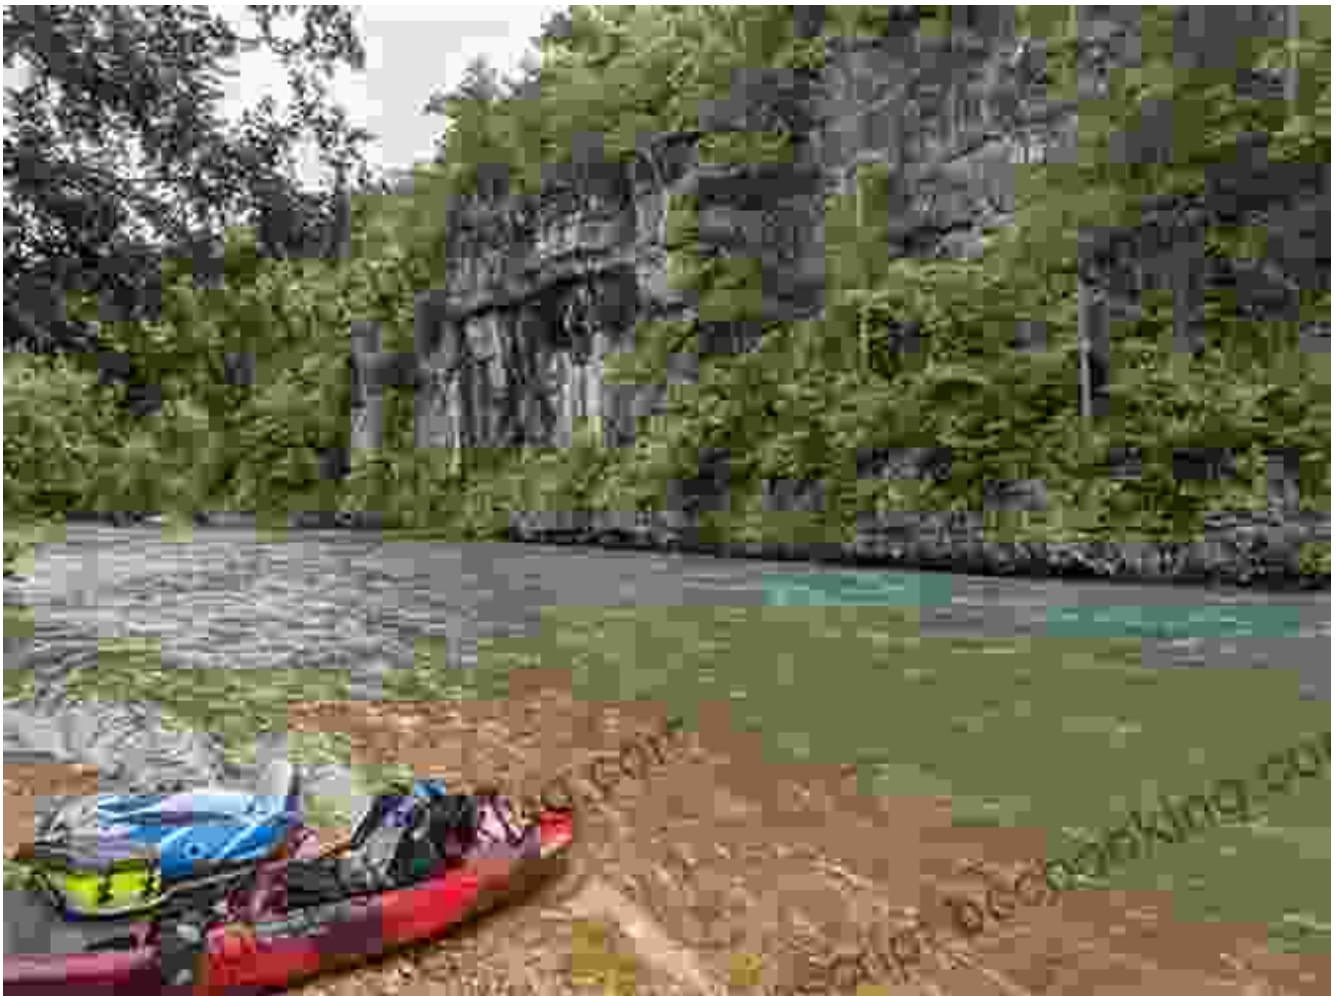

A Sanctuary for Wildlife

Pennington is home to a diverse array of wildlife that thrives in its pristine habitats. Spot white-tailed deer grazing in the meadows, listen to the haunting calls of owls at night, and marvel at the vibrant colors of migratory birds that flock to the riverways during spring and fall migrations.

- Bald Eagles: Keep an eye out for majestic bald eagles soaring high above the riverbanks. Pennington provides nesting and feeding grounds for these magnificent birds of prey.

- Black Bears: Encounter the elusive black bears that roam the remote forests of the riverways. Respect their presence and take necessary precautions to ensure both your safety and their well-being.
- River Otters: Delight in the playful antics of river otters as they frolic in the crystalline waters of the springs and rivers. These charming creatures add a touch of magic to the wilderness experience.

A Legacy of Conservation

Ozark National Scenic Riverways Pennington was established to preserve and protect the irreplaceable natural and cultural resources of the Ozarks. The National Park Service manages the riverways with a commitment to responsible stewardship, ensuring that its pristine beauty and ecological integrity are preserved for generations to come.
